County Convention .- Pursuant to the rall of the County Central Committee, the Convention for the nomination of fifteen delegates to the State Convention to be held at Columbuson the 20th of June, 1866, for the transaction of business and the nomination of candidates on the Union ticket, was held at Garrett's Hall at ten o'clock Saturday morning. The meeting was called to order by Thomas Jones, Jr., Chairman of the County Central Committee.

On motion General James Barnett was appointed President, W. C. McFarlan Secretary and D. J. Loomis Assissant Secretary. On motion of Thomas Bolton a committee consisting of Messrs. Clark, Bolton and Taylor, were appointed by the Chair. The delegates from the several wards and ownships presented their credentials, and Reed was arrested by the Metropolitan Pothe committee reported that Warrensville lice for playing the lumber-dealer-confiand East Cleveland were represented by six delegates each; that the other wards and townships had adopted the apportionment recommended by the Central Committee and that Orange, Mayfield and Rock port were not represented. On motion of John A. Foote the report o the Committee on Credentials was accepted by the Convention. Mr. Dangler moved that the report be so amended as to allow each township and found in his possession: One mink cape, ward the number of delegates allowed by $300; one three fourths cape, $140; one the call of the Central Committee. mink maif. 835; two Russia sable coffers.

Mr. Bolton moved to amend so as to alow each ward and township six votes. The motion as amended was carried. On motion of D. A. Dangler it was exressed as the sense of the Convention that THE GREAT NEW ENGLAND all future Conventions be called on the basis of six delegates from each ward and township in the county.
